The governor usked, according to the testimony, that contributions be given in cash instead of checks.

Counsel for the impeachment managers said they were prepared to prove the governor received campaign contributions "vastly in excess" of the total mentioned in the articles of impeachment. There were more than 100 not accounted for, counsel asserted.

Names of Contributors Introduced. The names of a farge number of these contributers, other than those of the brewing interests, were brought into evidence. These included the names of 52 persons mentioned as drawers of Suizer checks in the account of Louis A. Sarecky, the governor's secretary, in the Mutual Alliance Trust company. This account showed, with checks and cash, that deposits of $14,400 had been made between Sept. and the date of the governor's inouguration. Decision on the question as to whether Sulzer's alleged misuse of checks given the governor without reerriction as to their use constituted larcehy was reserved to give the court an opportunity to investigate the au-

DIVISION OF OPINION

REGARDING THAW CASE. Advisers of Governor Felker Take Different Views of It.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 25 .- A division of opinion is said to exist among Gov-ernor Felker's advisers as to whether he should honor the request of the state of New York for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw. Some of them take the attitude that the New York papers are in proper legal form and that it is unnecessary for the governor to go below their surface in an inquiry into the facts of the case upon which they are based. Others at the state-house take in opposite view. But Governor Felker, who is himself lawyer, is understood to attach importance to securing further informa-tion on the subject of the reported in-dictment of Thaw by the Dutchess county (N. Y.) grand jury for conspiracy in connection with his escape from the Matteawan insane asylum, No indictment has been made public, but William T. Jerome said in arguing on New York's petition for extradition before Governor Felker Tuesday that an indictment had been found but had been kept secret by request. It is said that until the governor learns more definitely just what attitude has been taken by the Dutchess grand jury he probably will defer his decision in regard to signing the extradition warrant.

Governor Felker is at his home in Rochester, to remain until Monday. It is believed here that he will grant the request made by Thaw's counsel today

Open Clash of Factions Averted by Clearing the House of Spectators-Gunmen Intimidate Legislators.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 25 .- After another exciting day in the. Tennessee house of representatives, leaders of the political factions which have bandled charges that "gun men" were being used to intimidate legislators reached ed an agreement late this afternoon to clear the capitol of all spectators. The state senate was not in session, and members of that body, city detectives policemen and state officials not pres ent on official business were included in the "request" to leave the capitol and state house grounds.

Necessary to Preserve Peace. This action was taken as a precau ion against a threatened open clash between the factions that are fighting over the so-called liquor law enforcement bills.

Three members of the house were named a committee to clear the tate house in accordance with the agree ment. The spectators in the corridors were told that the action decided upon was necessary for the preservation of Filibuster Against Law-Enforcement Bills.

All the partisans of the opposing egislative factions finally left the illding, and the house was again called to order.

The regulars today continued their llibuster against the law-enforcemen allis. These bills, three in number, are designed to strengthen the statewide prohibition laws. All three of the measures passed the senate by a close Workmen Come Across Skeleton in Starch Box-Eccentricities of Late Owner-Fond of His Grand-Niece.

Bloomington, Ills., Sept. 25.-The mansion at Clinton, Ills., erected forus years ago by Colonel Thomas Smill yielded another sensation today when it was learned that the skeleton of a child in a home-made coffin had been found skilfully concealed within a wall. Wreckers tearing down the residence made the discovery which adds another chapter to the stormy history of Colonel Snell, who died about seven years ago and for whose fortune a amous fight was made in the courts of Elinois Body Buried in Starch Box.

The body of the child had been puried in a starch box with a sliding cover, which easily opened, exposing the bones when the house wreckers

The workmen threw the box with its ontents into the yard and it remained there two days before it was burned over to the police. A burrled inquest was held, an open verdict was returned and the town supervisor took charge of the body, buryin, it in the public cemetery.

Little Flesh Remaining.

"We have no idea as to how long the body has been in the wall, said O. F. Burr, Clinton's chief of police over the long distance telephone.
"There was little flesh remaining. and the box must have been concealed many years ago. Colonel Snell himself built the mansion about forty years ago and lived in it up to the time of his death. The house has been occupied sluce that time by one family, though vacant practically a year," Snell Bought Another Man's Wife.

The story of Colonel Snell's life was told in the courts at three trials when Richard Shell broke his father's will the ground that the old man was of unsound mind. It was brought out that the lure of gold led at least one husband to consent to his wife's selling her affections to the banker, whill both, it was charged, connived in attempts to gain more gold by holding out their fourteen year old daughter as a lure for the eccentric millionaire. Letters were introduced to show the relation between Celonel Snell and the mother and also letters from the arrested at Douglas, Ariz, by agents daughter, imploring him to exchange of the department of justice and his money for her kisses.

Grandniece 'His Companion.

Other letters were offered to prove that Mrs. Mabel Snell-McNamara. grandniece, profited more by the will than anyone else, that Colonel Snell had practically disinherited his only son, and that during the life of the elder Snell, Mrs. McNamara had received annual money tributes amountng to many thousands of dollars and had accompanied him on many trips.

DARING ATTEMPT OF CONVICTS TO ESCAPE.

Five Inmates of Sing Sing Overpower

Guard and Jump Into River Ossining, N. Y., Sept. 25-Five convicts at Sing Sing prison, at work unloading a coal barge, overpowered a guard this afternoon; jumped into the Hudson river and attempted to swim the other side. The shots of other guards halted them, however, and all ve were recaptured. Billy Green, leader of the band, was brought back from mid-stream in a rowboat. Green, who two years ago escaped and was brought back after being caught in California, hesitated a moment after the shots were fired but continued towards the opposite shore when he saw the guards busy attending to his companions, Frederick De Barri, Joseph White, Matthew Loofice and Louis Price. Two guards in the small heat overtook him before reached land, however, and he was captured without a struggle. The convicts on the barge were in charge of Keeper William Gormley The five sprang upon him and knocked him down. Armed men in the sentry poxes on the prison wall overlooking the Hudson peppered the water on all sides of the swimming convicts with bullets but took care not to hit any of the men.
